

Benefit Highlights for Hourly Employees

Healthcare

- Healthcare is provided by Cigna.
- The Company will pay 66 2/3% of the cost of “employee only” tier and up to 50% for all dependent tiers. However, if the employee participates in the Company’s wellness program, the Company will pay 80% of the cost of “employee only” tier and will continue to pay up to 50% for all dependent tiers.
- The company offers two types of medical plans: a High Deductible Health Plan and a Copay Plan.
- For both plans, preventive care is covered at 100%, including preventative prescription medications. The deductible does not apply.
- The High Deductible Health Plan includes a Health Savings Account with employer contributions and optional employee contributions. The Company annually contributes $300 for the “employee only” tier and $600 for all other tiers. When the employee participates in wellness, the Company contributions increase to $500 for the “employee only” tier and $1,000 for all other tiers. The employee pays 20% of allowable charges for medical and prescription costs after the deductible is met for covered services. The deductible is $1,500 for the “employee only” tier and $3,000 for all other tiers.
- The Copay Plan offers fixed amounts (copays) for certain health services such as doctor’s office visits, physical therapy appointments and urgent care center visits. These services and prescriptions are not subject to the deductible. For other health care services, the employee pays 20% of allowable charges after the deductible is met for covered services. The deductible is $1,500 per individual or $3,000 per family (whichever is met first).
- Coverage begins on the Sunday coinciding with or following 27 days of employment.
